WELCOME to Two Big Blondes! We sell plus-size clothing and accessories by consignment. Current drop-off, appointment & intake policies are available on our website www.twobigblondes.com/consign.

INTAKE: We review items following our consignment guidelines, including: condition, age, brands we don't take, seasonality and current inventory. Items not chosen for consignment can either be returned to you by appointment*, or donated through the Seattle Women's Assistance Fund (SWAF). We do not inventory or explain why items were donated. Tax-deductible receipts are available upon request.

CONSIGNMENT PERIOD: Your 100-day consignment period begins when we process items through our database and place on the sales floor. We email/mail an inventory list to you, which includes item details, sale price, and the expiration date of your consignment (indicated by "PKUP DATE" on the list).

We reserve the right to reject items that are stained, soiled, out-of-date, in ill repair, we have a surplus of similar items, and/or as described in our consignment guidelines. If we miss stains or other flaws until after the item has been priced, we will pull the item from your inventory and donate it to SWAF. We do our best to safeguard your items, however Two Big Blondes is not responsible for damage or loss.

Items are sold at full price for the majority of your 100-day consignment period. Before your items expire, they may be reduced to 25%, 50% and 75% off for varying periods of time. From time to time, we have sales and special promotions and your items may be reduced in price for the duration of the sale. A small buyer's fee is added to the price of items, which is paid by the buyer, not by you.

UNSOLD ITEMS: If you wish to have your unsold items back, you MUST contact us to make a pickup appointment* 5-7 days prior to the expiration date, located under "PKUP DATE" on your item list. All items not requested for pickup become the property of Two Big Blondes and are donated to SWAF.

PAYMENT: Your account is credited with 40% of the sale price as items sell. You receive a 25% bonus on your available credit when used for in-store purchases. Your balance does not expire and remains on your account until used in-store or you request a payout. To request a payout of your available balance you may either come to the store to pick up (no charge), or request a check to be mailed to you ($1.00 fee).

* Items not picked up within 10 days of your appointment will automatically be donated to SWAF.

We look forward to a long and mutually profitable association with you. After all, we could not do it without you, our partner in consignment. Thank you for your business.

I have read the above terms and accept them for all consignments with Two Big Blondes:
